PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S
FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

The Plaintiff, through his attorneys, Law Offices of Kenneth Hiller, PLLC, hereby responds to Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories Requests:

General Objections

1. Plaintiff objects to Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories to the extent that they seek information not known to Plaintiff.
2. Plaintiff objects to Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories to the extent that they call for information beyond the scope of the above captioned litigation.
3. Plaintiff has not completed his investigation, has not completed discovery, and has not completed trial preparation. Plaintiff bases his responses contained herein on his knowledge, information, and belief at this time and reserve the right to supplement responses to these discovery requests to the extent necessary and appropriate.
4. In providing these objections, and in the response to Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories of Documents pursuant thereto, Plaintiff does not in any way waive, or intend to waive, but rather intend to preserve and is preserving:

- a. All objections as to competence, relevancy, materiality, and admissibility of the Notice (or responses) or the subject matter thereof;
- b. All objections to vagueness, ambiguity, and undue burden;
- c. All rights to object on any ground to the use of and any of said documents or responses, or the subject matter thereof, in any subsequent proceeding, including trial of this or any other action; and,
- d. All rights to object on any ground to any request or further responses to these or any other interrogatory requests, or other discovery requests involving or related to the subject matter of these discovery requests.

5. The inadvertent or mistaken production of documents or statements subject to the protections of the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, or other privilege shall not constitute a general, inadvertent, implicit, subject matter, separate, independent, or other waiver of such privilege or protection, and does not put in issue or constitute the affirmative use of the advice or counsel or any privileged communications. All such inadvertently produced document(s) or statements shall be returned to Plaintiff's counsel, along with any copies made thereof.

INTERROGATORIES

INTERROGATORY NO. 1

Identify each and every person who may have information or knowledge relevant to this action, and for each such person, describe the subject(s) of which he or she has information or knowledge.

ANSWER: Objection. Plaintiff further objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome. Plaintiff also objects Plaintiff also objects as the information requested is not relative to any claim or defense in the action. Without waiving any objection, Plaintiff responds as follows: Plaintiff, Seth J. Andrews, Esq., and Kenneth R Hiller, Esq. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement this response.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2

For each communication that plaintiff had with defendant or any other person concerning the debt at issue, defendant's collection efforts, or the allegations of the complaint, state the following:

- (a) The name of the individual initiating the communication;
- (b) The date and time;
- (c) The method (e.g., letter, telephone call);
- (d) The substance of the communication; and
- (e) Any witnesses to or participants in the communication.

ANSWER: Objection. Plaintiff further objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome. Plaintiff also objects Plaintiff also objects as the information requested is not relative to any claim or defense in the action. Without waiving any objection, Plaintiff responds as follows: That on February 12, 2015, Plaintiff received a letter from Defendant dated February 9, 2015, addressed to a William J. Wagner, JR., signed by Melisa Overbeck, Esq. The letter stated there was a judgment against Plaintiff in the amount of $2,570.17. The letter was addressed to Plaintiff's residence. On or about February 12, 2015 Plaintiff called the Defendant in regards to the letter Plaintiff received and spoke to a woman named Karen. Plaintiff stated to the Defendant he was not William J. Wagner Jr. and did not owe the debt that was referenced in the letter sent to Plaintiff. During this conversation with the Defendant, Plaintiff confirmed that his social security number did not match that of William J. Wagner Jr. Defendant then informed the Plaintiff that he was not the person they were looking for and that Defendant would inform an attorney in their office of such. On or about March 2015, Plaintiff received two certified letters from Defendant. Plaintiff, suspecting that these letters were further attempts to collect on the same debt he had previously informed the Defendant that he did not owe, refused acceptance of these letters and they were returned to the Defendant. As a result of receiving the aforementioned letters from the Defendant, on March 19, 2015, Plaintiff contacted the Defendant and once again told the Defendant that he is not the person who owes this debt. During this conversation, Plaintiff spoke with an individual named Christian. Plaintiff explained to Defendant that he has a different social security number and address than William J. Wagner Jr. and to stop contacting him regarding this debt. Defendant told Plaintiff that they would email an attorney in their office informing them that the Plaintiff had a different social security number and address. Following this conversation, Plaintiff received a Subpoena Duces Tecum with Restraining Notice from Defendant dated May 15, 2015. This subpoena commanded the Plaintiff to appear for a debtor's exam on July 7, 2015 at Defendant's office. The subpoena was signed by Melissa Overbeck, Esq. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement this response.
